

Predictable

Consistency and stability in expectations allows students to anticipate what is expected of them across school locations

Positive

Interactions students receive from staff result in their feeling valued and connected to school

Present

Staff actively interrogate their own beliefs, perceptions, and unconscious biases to ensure that decision making is free from negative influence

Empowering

The learning environment is supportive of student voice and choice to activate and direct their own learning experience